

Foundation Apprenticeship in Hospitality

HOSPITALITY

SCQF Level 4

Hospitality is a significant part of the Scottish economy, delivering £6 billion each year, with close to 300,000 people working in the sector. A career in hospitality could see you working in hotels, pubs, bars, restaurants, leisure parks, visitor attractions, public- and private-sector contract catering, coffee shops and even helping to organise weddings.

CAREER PATHWAYS

- Commis Chef
- Food and Drink Service Staff
- Events Assistant

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The hospitality sector is growing in Fife and Scotland. It is a great place to start your career. This course will give you an insight into what career path you can progress on to. You will learn how to cook and produce a wide range of dishes, serve food and drink while giving excellent customer service and assist in organising an event.

COURSE CONTENT

Skills for Work Element

- Hospitality: Working the professional kitchen
- Hospitality: Working front of house
- Hospitality: Working in the hospitality industry
- Hospitality: Introduction to events
- Work-based skills challenge

SKILLS DEVELOPED

- Communication
- Creative thinking
- Teamwork
- Problem solving

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- Working towards National 3s and 4s in Maths and English
- A good attendance record in school

COURSE DURATION

1 year

TARGET YEAR GROUP

S4

ADDED VALUE FOR FUTURE PROGRESSION

Successful achievement of this FA could support you in gaining a place on the NC: Professional Cookery SCQF Level 5 course.

SCQF Credit Points: 30